Weekly Highlights

by Mrs. Hackert

"All About Kindergarten" evening tonight at Sully Christian begins at 6:30 p.m. Parents will receive lots of information, and the kids will have lots of fun – guaranteed!

Students were reminded this morning during chapel time about donations to the food pantry in Kellogg. A list of needed items was included in Bits 'n Pieces a couple of weeks ago but in case you don't have that available, here is the list of food pantry needs at this time:

money for meat
canned fruit
canned soup
canned stew
oatmeal
pancake mix
toilet tissue
Kleenex

Remember to mark the date of March 8 on your calendar for our local Fine Arts Evening. The junior high students are diligently preparing! Also put a check mark on the date of April 3 for the District V Fine Arts evening hosted by Sully Christian. Busy times ahead – but all very good! The Sully dentist office has graciously given us some false teeth to use for one of our skits, but don't worry, no one has to "wear" them.

Our students at Sully Christian are reading lots of books. Check out the library walls – they are "popping" with book titles.

We continue to give thanks to God for healthy students and mild winter weather. As a past Sully Christian School bus driver, I'm sure our current bus drivers are lovin' the better-than-average driving conditions.

Tell me and I forget. Teach me and I remember.

Involve me and I learn.
